

Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

CRITICAL INTELLIGENCE NEEDS

(Nominations--September 1985)

16 September 1985

NOTE FOR:	CIPC Staff
FROM:	ES/CIPC			25X1
SUBJECT:	CIPC Critical Intelligence Needs
1. Attached for your information and review are the Critical Intelligence Needs (CIN) nominations submitted by the CIPC members. Also attached are the staff paper nominations and the CINs submitted by the respective staffers. 2. It is requested that you study these nominations and be prepared to discuss their respective merit at a staff meeting scheduled for 1400 on 18 September in Room 5N07.
	•			25X1
Attachmen	t: As stated

The Director of Central Intelligence Washington D.C 20005 Critical Intelligence Problems Committee DCI/ICS 85-3815 19 August 1985 ILLEGIB MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems	Declas	ssified in Part - Saniti	zed Copy Approved for Release 2011/12/12 : CIA-RDP89B01330R000600890	0015-9
DCI/ICS 85-3815 19 August 1985 ILLEGIB MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 25X1 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence bortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1			The Director of Central Intelligence	/
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page			Washington, D.C 20505
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1	3	Critical Intelligence	Problems Committee
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems				ILLECID
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 25X1 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1			15 August 1505	ILLEGID
MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee FROM: Eloise R. Page Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems 25X1 1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1
Chairman SUBJECT: Critical Intelligence Problems		MEMORANDUM FOR:	Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee	25 X 1
1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		FROM:	Eloise R. Page
1. In December 1983, the CIPC developed for the DCI a list of critical intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC because the provide you are consolidated to the candidate topics and the provide you are consolidated topics and t			Chairman intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		SUBJECT:	Critical Intelligence Problems	25X1 intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1
intelligence problems that required the attention of the Intelligence Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		1 In Decemb	can 1002 the CIDC developed for the DCI a list of critical Community. As a result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a series of studies to identify the intelligence shortfalls and to recommend specific solutions. The problem areas addressed included: 2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1
2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page		Community. As a	result of that effort, the CIPC was tasked to conduct a
2. We now need to revisit this subject and develop today's list of intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1				25V1
intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		30001110		23/1 intelligence issues which require coordinated Community attention. It is, therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1 therefore, requested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1 problems confronting the Intelligence Community which you consider most significant and which should be given CIPC study. 3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		intelligence iss	ested that each of you develop a list of those intelligence
3. Would you please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		problems confror	iting the Intelligence Community whi ch you cons ider most	05)//
Secretary, CIPC, by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		significant and	which should be given CIPC study.	25X1 consolidated list of the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		3. Would you	please provide your list of candidate topics to the Executive discussion of these topics at a CIPC meeting. Eloise R. Page 25X1		Secretary, CIPC,	by 4 September 1985. Subsequently, we will provide you a strong the candidate topics, and, if warranted, schedule a
25X1				25X1
25X1
25X1
			Eloise R. Page
				25 X 1
25X1
25X1
25X1
				25X1
SECRET
SECRET
SECRET
			SECRET

